Successful Case Study

Hum Ekal hain par Akeli nahi! (We are single but not alone!)

Gayatri bai is a widow, resident of village Bindo, Tehsil Jhalra Patan, district Jhalawar. She was abandoned by her family after becoming a widow. She started living in her maternal home which is in Hemda panchayat, block Sunel, and district Jhalawar. First she joined the group and with support from single women leaders she accessed government schemes and got benefits. After that, with support from single women leaders, she tried to get her share in the land at her marital home. But since her parents-in-law were still alive, she was unable to get her share in land. For her share, single women leaders made attempts for some mid-way or compromise but her father-in-law did not give her land. Now, some time back, after her in-laws passed away, her Dewar and jait (brothers in law) were not giving Gayatri her due share of the land. Then some leaders and Organization staff went to her marital home, had a meeting with her brothers-in-law, but they refused completely. Then they were threatened that if they will not give her share then an FIR will be lodged against both of them and then legally they have to give her land. They got frightened and got ready to give her due share in land. Single women leaders divided the property and got it documented on a stamp duty paper. She got her due share of land - 5 bighas of land and also got a share in her father-in-law's house to live. Now Gayatri Bai is living in her marital home and makes a living for herself and for her children by farming on her land. With the strength of the women's collective, Gayatri Bai could take her due share, her right to property and land. Gayatri Bai says, "Had the single women – my sisters -- not been with me, I would have just died in going to the court alone time and again but wouldn't have been able to get my rights." She thanked all her fellow members and tells everyone about the strength of the collective. She doesn't miss a single meeting and also motivates others to be active.

Singel women raising their voice from the panchayat level to the National level...

Main Activities of the Organization

Panchayat level meetings: Ekal Nari Shakti Sansthan facilitated single women's monthly meetings covering 500 panchayats spread over 108 blocks of Rajasthan. These meetings were attended by 76,865 single women, 15,183 non-single women, 4,660 men, 1,443 elected representatives and administrative persons. Single women participating in Panchayat level meeting

Problems shared by the single women were also resolved in these meetings.

Block Committee Members Meetings: These meetings are organized in each block once in a year. This year in the month of May and June in 70 blocks, block committee members' meetings were organized. More than 1,400 block committee members participated in these meetings. In these meetings, district committee members were selected and discussions were held on issues of single women at the block level. Some key issues discussed were - Due to the closure of the food security online registration portal, women are not getting benefits of food security; pensions and child support entitlements were not received for many months; single women were not getting work in MNREGA etc. After the discussions, the block committee members prepared

Success Story

Waqif kahan zamana hamari udaan Se (The World is not aware of my flight...)

Koshish Karne walon ki kabhi haar nhin hoti! (Those who try never lose!)

This was made possible by the unity of the single women and their collective strength. Link Sandara Anganwadi Worker in Gram Panchayat Chidiyan Gandhi, Tehsil Nohar, District Bhadra. Her centre was being run near the village well. Children had to cross by the well to go to the centre. Parents did not want to risk their children's live. So they refused to send their children to the Anganwadi centre. Anganwadi Worker informed the department many times but her repeated efforts just fell on deaf ears. Anganwadi Worker was suggested to give her complaint in writing which she did too but still nothing happened. When ENSS block leader went to the village, Anganwadi worker shared the problem of her centre. Then all the single women got together and went to the Panchayat bhawan, introduced themselves and about the organization and explained the Anganwadi centre's problem to the sarpanch sahib. They told the sarpanch that AWC is being run at a risky place and if anything wrong happens to the children who will be held responsible for that!

Department is not paying any attention to this matter despite the repeated complaints. Being a sarpanch you are aware of safe places available in the village and you can give one of those safe places where children are also safe and can go to the Anganwadi without any fear. Sarpanch got impressed with the empowered single women's leadership that with in 4-5 months he gave a land on lease for the Anganwadi centre. Now Anganwadi centre will be built on this land. Villagers said that single women's sangathan resolved the problem which could not be resolved by the village and government since months.

Action against the corrupt supervisor.....

There was a supervisor from the Department of Women and Child Development one supervisor from the Department of Women and Child Development in Etawa block of district Kota who would take bribes of Rupees 2,000/- per month from the Anganwadi (nursery school) workers working under her. Supporting the Anganwadi workers, single women leaders were fighting against this supervisor since 2019, demanding some departmental action. In the name of departmental action, she would be transferred to other blocks but again she would come back using her approach and connections with higher authorities. Her political connections with people in power and her influence was well known. In May 2022 single women leaders along with the affected Anganwadi workers filed a complaint in the Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) and the supervisor was caught red handed. Despite that, the supervisor could not be arrested because of her approach. The Department did not give permission to the ACB for any legal proceedings, so nothing happened. Collectively single women continued to create pressure on the government and the department. Finally, supervisor got arrested and legal proceedings were started against her. Collective strength of single women won the fight.

Shared journey of Community Based Organizations (CBOs) 17-21 March 2024:

A shared journey of women's CBOs was organized in Kama Hotet, Ahmdabad from 17-21st March 2024 in which representatives of eight women organizations from four states of India (Rajasthan, Gujrat, Uttar Pradesh and West Bengal) participated. The main objective of this shared journey was to emphasise that after a long journey, a halt is important to relook at the road taken, reflect on that, absorb the learning of the long travel physically, emotionally and mentally and then resume the travel going forward. No travel completes without doing this exercise. During this five days travel, all co-travellers shared about their experience, challenges and learnt from each others' experience. They refreshed their memories and tried to deeply understand the feminist movements and the organizational work so that some new aspects could be identified. In this travel five participants participated from the Organization in Rajasthan. For this, participants from the Organization put the journey together on the flip charts. A field visit was also organized during this travel which was exciting as well as informative.

"Behnadooj ke rang mahila matdata ke sang" (Colour of sisterhood with women voters)

Behnadooj- 'a celebration of sisterhood'- This time this celebration was special and organized from 16 to 22 November 2023. Because there was Code of Conduct in effect due to the legislative assembly elections and there was ban on public functions. So the program was observed with an interesting theme – women as voters! There were 3 mega celebrations at a district level, 7 big programs were at block level and the day was celebrated in 171 gram panchayats. About 3,103 participants actively participated in these celebrations. The theme of thee programs was –

Single Women taking oath on the occasion of Behnadooj

On the occasion of Women Farmers' Day single women leaders organized different activities such as meetings at the panchayat level, conferences, workshops and rally at the block level. During the programs, discussion was held on a range of issues like identity building of women farmers, their access to resources, traditional farming, seeds conservation, women's experiences, and women's participation in agriculture, devolution in traditional culture, environment conservation and organic farming.

Participants observing Women Farmers' Day and Inaugurating the function

During the discussion women accepted that women do 75% of the agriculture work but they are not acknowledged as 'farmers'. The Farmer is considered someone who has land in his/her name and rural women usually do not own land. Women are not even allowed to spend the money that they have earned by selling their crop. That's why in comparison to men, women's participation is minimal or negligible in decision-making. Some of the participants shared the harms of chemical use in farming saying that due to chemical farming everyone is consuming poison and also we are getting affected by various diseases. To avoid all this, we should do the farming using old traditional methods. Our identity - Woman Farmer.

हमारी पहचान, महिला किसान...... खेत मे खिलहान मे, फिर क्यों नहीं विधान में

Experiences and Case Study of the Literacy Camp Being Run by the Organization

Single women and leaders associated with Ekal Nari Shakti Sansthan are not weak by any means. Some women facilitators have hidden potential of leadership and they are strong leaders too, also working in their field area very efficiently, but they lack literacy skills, and this lack imposes a big challenge for them. For the last three years, the Organization is running literacy classes for 6 months for strong but illiterate single women leaders, volunteers. As a result of this initiative, many single women leaders started reading and writing themselves and an uplift in their confidence level was seen.

This year, from June to November 2023, the Organization organized 5 literacy camps in which along with one worker, 8-10 single and other women learnt reading and writing. These five camps were held in Dausa, Tonk, Hanumangarh, Dholpur, Jhalawar districts in which 46 women learnt reading and writing.

Some Experiences Shared by the Women:

Jamila Bano: I am 50 years old and I am working as block facilitator in Panchayat Mendwas, district Tonk. Being illiterate I was facing many challenges during my work. I had to request others time and again ans seek their support. After joining the literacy class, now I have learnt reading and writing and 7 other women had also learnt reading and writing with me. Although it was difficult to learn in this age, but we have achieved it! Now I am very happy.

Chunni Bai: She was 48 years old and resident of Lalsot in Dausa. She is very strong with immense leadership skills. Chunni Bai says, "Due to my illiterate status, a,nyone could make me a fool. Many times, an officer would humiliate me and shoo me away. I would feel hurt, and always would think that had I been literate, I would not have to face this humiliation! Then I joined a literacy class run by the Organization for six months and have learnt reading and writing. Now when I go to the field, I do all my reading and writing work myself. I am feeling very happy after achieving this.

साक्षरता हमें जगाती है, शौषण से बचाती है। पढ़ेगे, पढ़ायेगे साक्षर समाज बनायेगे।

Literacy makes us aware,

It saves us from exploitation.

We will be literate and will make others literate And will make a literate society.
